

DZINE

#PORTRAIT | MOURNING

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

Mirror, Marks, Mississippi & Niagara Falls, New York, 2005

MEDIUM

Archival ink print

DIMENSIONS

60" x 75" | Edition of 5

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$5,250

- ARTIST © Danielle Nelson Mourning
- TITLE Memories of a Pleasant Visit, Marks, Mississippi & Niagara Falls, New York, 2005
- MEDIUM Super 8 transferred to digital
- DURATION 15 minutes | Edition of 5
- BIOGRAPHY Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.
- PRICE $1,500

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

Exorcism in Indigo Rhapsody, 2013

MEDIUM

Digital stop animation

DURATION

3 minute loop | Edition of 11

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$1,500

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

Mother Divine, 2015

MEDIUM

Archival ink prints

DIMENSIONS

92" x 85"

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$5,000

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

The Sun had a Date with the Moon, 2014

MEDIUM

Archival ink prints

DIMENSIONS

30" x 40" | each framed, edition of 4

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$3,000

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

The Seduction, 2015

MEDIUM

Archival ink print mounted on plexiglass

DIMENSIONS

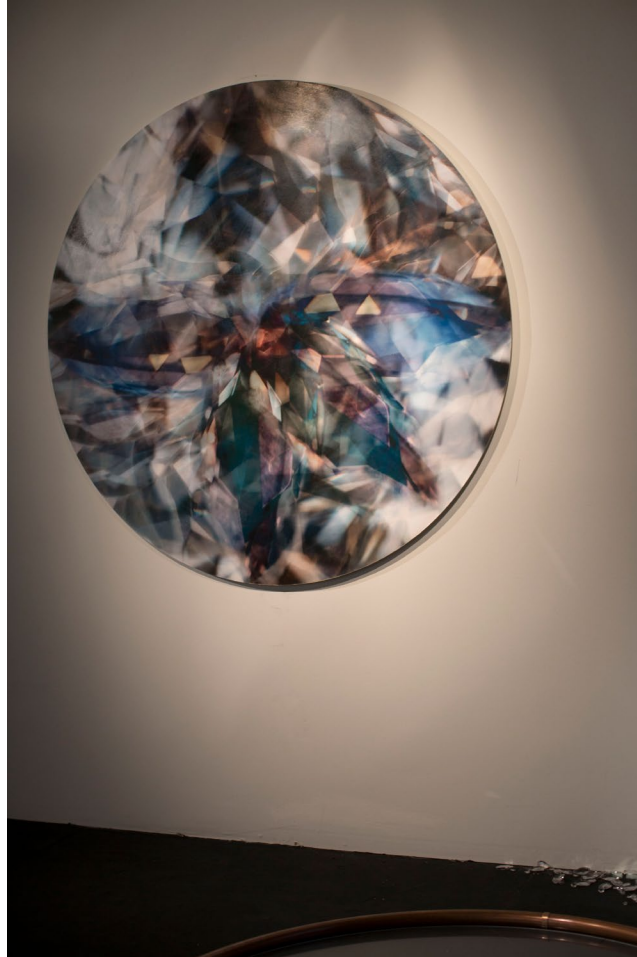

Ø 58"

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$2,500

ARTIST

© Danielle Nelson Mourning

TITLE

Death as Awakening, 2015

MEDIUM

Archival ink print and acrylic mounted on plexiglass

DIMENSIONS

Ø 58"

BIOGRAPHY

Danielle Nelson Mourning lives and works in San Francisco, CA. Mourning received her MFA from the Royal College of Art in London, England in 2005. Upon graduation, she received the Deutsche Bank Pyramid Award for Fine Art, which funded her work in Ireland and resulted in her work's inclusion in its permanent collection. Mourning cites American conceptual artist Christopher Williams as a significant influence on her practice, whom she worked for while attending Art Center College of Design. Her exhibition history includes solo shows in Los Angeles and New York.

PRICE

$2,500